EXPORT CONTROL FACTS

What is Export Control?

Export control regulations are federal laws that prohibit the unlicensed export of certain commodities or information for reasons of national security or protections of trade. Export controls usually arise for one or more of the following reasons:

- The nature of the export has actual or potential military applications or economic protection issues.
- Government concerns about the destination country, organization, or individual.
- Government concerns about the declared or suspected end use or the end user of the export.

What is an Export?

An export is any oral, written, electronic, or visual disclosure, shipment, transfer, or transmission of commodities, technology, information, technical data, assistance, or software codes to:

- Anyone outside the U.S., including a U.S. citizen
- A non-U.S. individual wherever they are (deemed export)
- A foreign affiliate, business, or university
“THE DAILY BUGLE” QUOTES

Pierre Teilhard de Chardin (1 May 1881 - 10 Apr 1955; was a French idealist philosopher and Jesuit priest who trained as a paleontologist and geologist, and took part in the discovery of the Peking Man. He conceived the vitalist idea of the Omega Point, a maximum level of complexity and consciousness towards which he believed the universe was evolving.)

- "Growing old is like being increasingly penalized for a crime you haven't committed."

Pun day:
* What do you do with a dead chemist? Barium.
* I bet the person who created the door knocker won a Nobel prize.
* Towels can't tell jokes. They have a dry sense of humor.
